LATHAM VIDEO GUIDE

The Latham Foundation has proudly produced film and videos of humane education and animal issues over the last 60 years. Our extensive library is now available online in the following categories:

THE HEALING HUMAN-ANIMAL BOND

the-healing-human-animal-bond

Our recent inspiring videos document animal-assisted activities that help people and animals. Each of the videos describes a different animal-assisted program and features children and adults who have found help and hope. Viewers will gain insight into starting, building, and maintaining effective programs in which both people and animals benefit.

DOG BITE PREVENTION

Prevention through understanding is the focus of this video. It explains how to recognize and handle dangerous dogs and how not to become a statistic. Highly skilled dog trainers demonstrate what to do if threatened by an aggressive dog. “Dog Bite Prevention” is recommended viewing for postal workers, delivery people, utility employees, sales people, and anyone who has to make home visits. The video is also important for dog owners, since most unreported dog bites occur within the home to dog owners and their families. (Latham has released a newer film on this subject in 2006. See Dog Defense.) (16 minutes) ©1992

CARING CAREERS

Making a Living, Making a Difference
Winner of two 32nd Annual Telly Awards,

Caring Careers focuses on several animal-oriented professions that require less formal training than that needed to become a veterinarian. You’ll meet a dog groomer, a dog walker and pet sitter, an equine massage therapist, a reptile and amphibian specialist, an up-and-coming horse trainer, and several veterinary technicians. Each gives you a behind-the-scenes glimpse into their world as they candidly discuss how they got started, the joys and challenges they encounter, and the rewards they experience in their chosen caring career.

Today it’s more possible than ever before to make a living while showing one’s respect and love for animals. Music generously donated by David Byrne. (21 minutes) ©2010

Extra Tags: career counseling, high school, teenagers, pet care, reptile, veterinary technician, horse trainer, equine massage, dog groomer, David Byrne, Telly Awards

CANINE GOOD CITIZEN

This video shows dog owners what the training and evaluation for canine good citizen certification consists of. According to the American Kennel Club guidelines, the following questions should be taken into account: 1) Is this the kind of dog you would like to own? 2) Would it be safe with children? 3) Would you welcome it as a neighbor? 4) Is it the kind of dog that makes its owner happy and does not make someone else unhappy? Most importantly, the Canine Good Citizen program stresses responsibility on both ends of the leash.

Presented the Maxwell Award in 1994 and named Best Video by the Dog Writers of America. (15 minutes) ©1993

Extra Tags: responsible pet ownership, canine good citizen certification, American Kennel Club

CAT TALE

Betty White introduces cats and their special needs. A wonderful story about a cat and a boy finding out what responsible pet ownership is. (18minutes) ©1972
