

The Latham Foundation Humane Education Grants for 2024

ELIGIBILITY

Please read carefully and make sure you meet these criteria before submitting a proposal.

- Latham grants that promote humane education through animal-assisted activities where both animals and people benefit.
- This year we are giving priority to programs that include innovative humane education programs reaching teenage students.
- Applicants must be U.S. programs.
- Nonprofit organizations will have priority but grants will not be limited to those who have attained 501(c)(3) status.

Awards will be up to $10,000 for a one-year grant.

Receiving a grant does not guarantee a renewal, nor does it prohibit one.

RESTRICTIONS

Grants are not to be used for:

- capital projects and equipment
- publications
- employee training
- conference registration or travel.

Latham cautions applicants about applying for funds for salaries, as we do not guarantee grants continuing past the initial grant period.

DEADLINE

Proposals for the 2024 Latham Grant program will only be accepted June 24, 2024 to June 28, 2024, using the website entry form.

The Latham Foundation
steps in humane education

Latham will consider all proposals submitted in compliance with our guidelines, and notify applicants with our decisions in mid-August. Grantees will receive their payments in early September 2024.

EXPECTATIONS:

- I/we will use these funds only for the stated purpose and for the goals of humane education as stated.
- I/we agree to provide a final report of the outcomes of this program within one month of the end of this grant period. A grant period is considered to be 12 months from when you receive your check.
- I/we agree to make that report and any publicity that results from it available to Latham for its use.
- If you received a grant last year, your interim report must be submitted along with your new application.

The 2024 Latham Grant Program focuses on the first three of the Latham Steps in Humane Education

- Kindness to Animals,
- To Each Other,
- To Other People.

This hierarchy of humane education builds good values and exemplifies great teenage education. Kindness and Respect of animals and people are vital elements in every step.

Organizations that meet the eligibility requirements described above are encouraged to apply for a Latham Foundation 2024 Grant.

Proposals for the 2024 Latham Grant program will only be accepted on our website from Monday through Friday, June 24 – 28, 2024.

APPLY ONLINE AT WWW.LATHAM.ORG

The Latham Foundation
steps in humane education